Samuel Mororó

São Paulo, SP, Brazil
+55 81 99541-2900
medeirosmororo@gmail.com
www.linkedin.com/in/samuelmororo

Economist and researcher focused on macroeconomics and monetary policy, currently pursuing a master's at FGV EESP. Background spans macroeconomic research on the buy side and on a Sales and Trading desk, building global and domestic macro scenarios, alongside independent applied research on fiscal-monetary interaction.

Education

Princeton University Started Jan 2027
Visiting Student Research Collaborator, Department of Economics

- Advancing dissertation research on directed credit and monetary policy transmission through direct collaboration with Princeton faculty, integrating frontier heterogeneous-agent macroeconomic modeling into the analysis of firm investment in Brazil.

FGV EESP Started Feb 2026
Professional Master's in Economics, concentration in Monetary Policy and Macroeconomics

- Dissertation on how subsidized directed credit in Brazil, channeled mainly through the national development bank (BNDES), affects the transmission of monetary and fiscal policy to firm investment.

Ibmec São Paulo Completed Dec 2025
B.A. in Economics, full merit scholarship

- Undergraduate thesis on income heterogeneity and consumption behavior in the transmission of monetary policy in Brazil.

Professional Experience

SENAI-SP May 2026 – present
Economic Research Fellow

- Quantitative sectoral competitiveness studies using official industrial and foreign trade microdata (IBGE, Comexstat/MDIC, Comtrade) and matched employer-employee records.
- Sectoral diagnostics delivered as technical consulting products for FIESP, Brazil's largest industrial federation.

XP Inc. Jul 2025 – Dec 2025
Equities Markets Analyst

- Covered the B3 equity universe under the CIO's strategic guidance, developing investment theses tailored to each client's risk profile.

Santander Asset Management Jul 2024 – May 2025
Macroeconomic Research Intern, Buy Side

- Built macroeconomic scenarios for Brazil, LatAm, the US, the Eurozone, and China, informing asset-allocation decisions at an asset manager with BRL 400 billion under management.

Santander Oct 2023 – Jul 2024
Private Banking Intern, UHNW

- Managed relationships with family offices and large economic groups, structuring estate planning, alternative investments, and offshore solutions.

BTG Pactual Mar 2023 – Jul 2023
Summer Intern, Sales and Trading (BMF Desk)

- Managed order flow and executed market making in futures, swaps, options, and spot across interest rate, FX, equity, and commodity derivatives.

Technical Skills

R, scenario modeling, econometrics, and automation, including Brazilian Central Bank data ingestion via GetBCBData and the Focus survey API, plus IBGE/SIDRA, RAIS/CAGED, and BNDES datasets. Python. LaTeX. Bloomberg Terminal, API, and Broadcast. Advanced Excel, financial modeling.